

0.

pd

ities hold 0% and
from

ng:

you get
t ways,

er can e best

. The
n what

nsible
ad, helps

asks
stakes

given to either
force
port or
nd work that has been taught at school.
inforce learning skills as well as presentation

Problem Solving
Presentation Skills
Research Skills
Creative Thinking
Collaborative Skills

en to have a positive attitude to their learning by already know and share their ideas with a talk what, when, where, why, how which and what are learning in each lesson need

ow their thinking and learning.

reinforced at home through their home learning family.

Managing feelings
Tolerance

s often have a purpose in preparing for a future nes causes problems if children don't carry out imes displayed in the class or referred to in mes to share, learn and enjoy mation/activity sheets s and Sounds- Phase 2, 3 and 4 words.

y children whenever they wish and child in 'Home School Books'

least weekly
to Learning Journey in Home School Books

ly given out on Friday however talk tasks may be given it with current class learning.

are changed regularly so that reading can be done at interactive for example games or activities.

open ended so that opportunities to extend children's taken.

jects are covered and recording home learning can be ty of ways.

ut on a Friday every week and expected back the week et across all three classes in the year group research/ talk connected to the Learning Journey, written outcome expected and sometimes not sometimes give out maths tasks which tend to be a

he week's work

cted to read for 10 to 15 minutes each evening, to learn and doubles and halves

across the phase group

children of home learning journal to record homework in condary school

cted to read daily as well as learn their tables upon the learning journey such as research/ follow up.

complexity.

n a Friday in Year 5, Year 6 more 'as and when' en' may be weekly or more regularly. Part of the extend work.

ng journal will be used to record home ig done each day.

als to record reading in class.

ey homelearning into the relevant classwork id' phonics programme from Reception to Year using materials called 'Support for Spelling'. include spelling work as part of Home